Mothers' Club Gives Food Sales, Helps Buy Band Uniforms

Seventy dollars was cleared on a food sale held by the Mothers' Club of Torrance Area Youth Bands Saturday, and the money will go towards purchase of band uniforms.

Under Mrs. Ernestine Pollock the sale was so successful that members have decided to sponsor another at 9 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, at the same location in front of Levy's Department Store.

The Senior Band will give a uniform benefit concert in the Torrance High school auditorium at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 12. Tickets will sell for $1 to adults and 50 cents to students, according to James Van Dyck, director.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB

Neighborhood Club members will gather for a luncheon meeting today at 10 a.m., with Mrs. Alice Wasson as hostess at 1023 Cota ave.

Elementary P.T.A. Represents 80% Of Total Enrollment

Torrance Elementary P.T.A. membership has jumped to 535, representing 80 percent of the school's total enrollment of students, according to Mrs. Elmer Moon.

A radio will be placed in the room of the class which is represented by the largest number of mothers at the P.T.A. meeting each month. Mrs. Betty Lee Hulzing's fourth grade class won the radio for this month.

WOMAN'S CLUB PARTY

The weekly card party of Torrance Women's club will be held at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the clubhouse. Contract and auction bridge, pinochle and 500 will be played and prizes awarded to winners. Mrs. Myron Russell was chairman of last week's party.

Mrs. Scott Talks On Marriage At YWCA Program

Mrs. Frances Scott will be presented by the YWCA as the second speaker in a series on marriage, at 8 p.m. tonight in the courtroom of the Torrance City Hall.

Director of nurses at Harbor General Hospital, Mrs. Scott will speak on "The Physical Aspect of Marriage." All women of Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, and Pueblo are cordially invited to attend the free lectures, Miss Helen Lockwood, program director for the YWCA, announced.

$10 FOR AUDIOMETER

Torrance Elementary P.T.A. has voted to donate $10 to the fund for purchase of an audiometer for use in the Torrance City Schools. American Legion Auxiliary, Bert S. Crossland, Post 176, is sponsoring the voluntary collection.

Doris Watson Marries George Osmond of Gardena

More than 100 guests witnessed the wedding of Mrs. Doris Pullman Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Pullman, 1225 Cota ave., to George William Osmond of Gardena Saturday afternoon in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler, former rector of St. Andrew's, officiated at the ceremony.

Wearing a champagne-colored satin afternoon dress with brown accessories, the bride was given away by her brother, V. Richard Pullman. She carried brown orchids pinned on a matching purse.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Pat Malone, who wore brown crepe and carried yellow tulle bouquets. Arthur Pfening acted as best man, and ushers were Harry Emerson and Ted Harper.

A reception in the parish hall was held following the wedding, at which the bride's mother and Mrs. Richard Pullman, sister-in-law, presided. Mrs. Josephine Brantley Berkeley served the wedding cake.

A dinner was given for the wedding party at Hilltop Cafe.

CHRISTMAS TREAT PLANNED BY 186th STREET P.T.A.

For their annual Christmas treat, members of 186th Street School P.T.A. decided at a regular meeting Thursday to distribute popcorn balls to the children this year.

Led by their music teacher, Mrs. Kay Davis, several students sang "Dance, Little Seraphina" and "Oh, Soldier, Won't You Marry Me?" In the group were: Janice Fletcher, Charlene Alstrom, Joan McIntosh, Patricia Braner, Terry Taylor, Frank Brunmit, Gilbert Matthews, and James Colclasure.

A demonstration of reading activities was given by Mrs. Grace Page, A1 and B2 teacher, and her students, Bobby Hunter, Joekel Hill, Sharon Burrus, Bobby Brannon, and Jerry Atteberry participated. Mrs. Page's class won a $1 prize for the largest representation at the last P.T.A. meeting, and it was reported that one of two guinea pigs was bought for the class with the money. The children are making charts and reports on observations of their new pets.

Mrs. Edith Meskimen, child welfare chairman, told members that children need more understanding and companionship in the home, according to conclusions reached at a recent juvenile protection and recreation conference. Mrs. Meskimen, Mrs. Leo Wagner, president, and Mrs. Cora Hill, Community Chest chairman, attended the conference.

"Our Children in School," a functional motion picture of teaching in action, was shown. Mrs. Mary J. Hawks, present principal, was featured in scenes taken when she taught a Los Angeles school.

Mrs. Ruth Hight was in charge of the social hour following the meeting. She was assisted by Mrs. Edith Matthews, Fern Early, Josephine Rutherford, and Ruth Strankle.

Toloha Club Meets Tomorrow Night To Elect Officers

Toloha members will elect new officers at a meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Mabel Slover, 1712 Martina ave. A social hour will follow the business session.

Mrs. Ann Hight, president, asked that all members attend and be on time for the meeting, since it is one of the most important for the season.

UNION AUXILIARY

Ladies' Auxiliary of Carpenter's Union 130, San Pedro, made plans Friday for a Christmas party for members and their families. A gift will be bought for each child it was announced. No date has been set for the event as yet. The Auxiliary also reported that it has made a donation to the Community Chest.

C.D.A. PLANS TO GIVE CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR PATIENTS

Plans for Christmas charity were made at a meeting of Court St. Catherine of Catholic Daughters of America in the Church of the Nativity hall last Monday.

Mrs. Ann MacDonald, philanthropy chairman, reported that gifts and a Christmas party will be given by members for 32 elderly women in the group's "adopted" ward in the Los Angeles County General hospital.

It was announced that Mrs. Marguerite Melville has been asked to represent Court St. Catherine on the board of directors for the newly formed Community Concert group.

Mrs. Lillian Schott presided as vice-grand regent in the absence of the grand regent, Mrs. Frances Forester.

L.A. PHILHARMONIC PLAYS SATURDAY IN SAN PEDRO

A concert by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, under the baton of conductor Albert Wallenstein, will open the third season of the San Pedro Philharmonic and Artists Assn. Inc., at 8:30 p.m. Saturday in the San Pedro high school auditorium.

Program for the concert will include the prelude to "Die Meistersinger von Nürnberg" by Wagner; "Quiet City," by Copeland, with a trumpet solo by John Clyman; "Nutcracker Suite," Op. 71a, by Tschalkowsky and "Lemminkainen's Homecoming Journey," Op. 22, by Sibelius.

A limited number of memberships for the subscription series are available from any board member, or in Lomita from Mrs. W. M. Schildmeyer or Wilfred Jeffrey. Mrs. Robert E. Carson, president, states that there will be no single admissions available at the door on the night of the concert.

The series will also bring to San Pedro the following: Bartlett and Robertson, world famous piano duo; the Caprino Sisters Operatic Quartet; Draper and Adlor, tap dancer supreme and harmonica virtuoso; and a second concert by the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra.
